

The International Air Cargo Association

MEMBERSHIP INVITATION

To join our dynamic
air logistics network

Working to advance
the world of air cargo

Welcome to TIACA

The International Air Cargo Association (TIACA) works tirelessly to advance the interests of air cargo and to promote the industry and its role as a vital component in world trade and a driver of global economic development.

TIACA is a not-for-profit worldwide trade association that represents all segments of the air cargo logistics industry. Its unique membership makes it the perfect platform for companies to network, address industry issues and share knowledge.

As a member of TIACA you will join an air logistics network that includes:

- Airlines
- Freight Forwarders
- Shippers
- Logistics Service Providers
- Integrators
- Courier & Express Operators
- Airports

- Ground Handling Agents
- General Sales Agents
- Aircraft Manufacturers
- Trucking Organizations
- Technology Providers
- Industry Media

Collectively, TIACA's members represent a high percentage of the industry's most innovative, successful and dynamic businesses.

In order to best represent its members, TIACA works proactively at government and regulatory levels, developing dialogue, giving the industry view on major developments impacting air cargo and participating in meetings of bodies including:

- International Civil Aviation Organization

- World Customs Organization
- European Civil Aviation Council
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security (Customs & Border Protection and Transportation Security Administration)
- U.S. Federal Aviation Administration
- United Nations Conference on Trade and Development
- World Bank
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development

In addition TIACA works cooperatively with other industry trade groups to maximize resources and present a unified supply chain view before regulatory authorities.

Benefits of Membership

As a member of TIACA you immediately become part of one of the most dynamic industry networking associations – but that is just the beginning...

- International Air Cargo Forum and Exposition (ACF)

Discounted conference admission and discounted exhibition booth space at the biennial event. Shippers enjoy complimentary registration.

With thousands of visitors, hundreds of exhibitors and conference sessions focused on the latest challenges and opportunities for air logistics companies, TIACA's ACF is firmly established as the best and most cost effective business networking event in the industry. The biennial event rotates every two years between Europe, the Americas and Asia.

- Executive Meeting and Annual General Meeting

Complimentary admission to annual event

TIACA's Executive Summit and Annual General

Meeting (ES/AGM) provides a platform for top logistics executives from multinational companies across all sectors of the industry to come together to debate current industry topics.

Plus:

- Copy of TIACA's position on major industry and regulatory issues
- Company listing and profile in the online TIACA membership directory
- Association's quarterly magazine, TIACA Times
- Press release posting service on www.tiaca.org
- Discounts on industry publications
- Advertising discounts on the TIACA website

Air Logistics Network

TIACA members have access to the Air Logistics Network (ALN). ALN provides air logistics industry professionals with a comprehensive service to facilitate business.

- Pre-schedule 1-2-1 meetings at the Air Cargo Forum

Ensure you maximize business development opportunities at TIACA's ACF.

ALN facilitates business relationships between members by providing an online service for members to pre-schedule business appointments. Members may schedule appointments with other registered attendees, including forwarders, shippers and airlines.

- Reference Center

Our online reference center provides tools like cargo tracking, customs rules from different countries, and other resources in one convenient website to support your business on a daily basis.

- Commercial Alerts

Notifications of business opportunities
